Reablement Support Worker

Job reference: AHSS00122W3HME
Location: North Denbighshire
Salary: Grade 4 £23,500 - £24,702 per annum
Hours: 37 hours per week
Contract: Fixed Term to 31/03/2025

You would be responsible for promoting independence by helping individuals to do things for themselves, to maintain their ability to live life as independently as possible by supporting the whole person – addressing their physical, social and emotional needs. This will include components of personal care.

Reablement and Interim Support Workers provide support to individuals within their own homes. There is therefore a requirement for applicants to have the ability to travel within the geographical work area as required. A vehicle can be provided.

We will offer you a full induction, regular supervision and access to training and development opportunities as well as support opportunities for career progression.

We also offer a range of employee benefits including:

- Generous annual leave
- Local Government Pension Scheme
- Access to an Employee Assistance Programme
- Lifestyle savings via DCC Rewards Direct (shopping, holidays, days out)
- Family friendly policies.

Appointment subject to Disclosure & Barring Service Check, satisfactory references.

If you would like to discuss any aspect of the post, please call Julie Bamber on 01824 708366 or Rob Gilmour on 01824 708315.

If you are interested in this vacancy, please apply on-line via the website www.denbighshire.gov.uk. For alternative methods of applying please contact Customer Services on 01824 706101.

Candidates must complete our application form to be considered. We regret that we are unable to reply to all applications. If you have not received a reply within three weeks of the closing date, you must assume that you have not been short listed for interview.

We reserve the right to close this vacancy early if we receive sufficient applications for the role. Therefore, if you are interested, please submit your application as early as possible.

Denbighshire County Council is committed to Equal Opportunities and its Welsh Language Standards. We welcome applications in the Welsh Language and application forms received in the Welsh Language will not be treated less favourably than an application form submitted in English.

Grade:	Grade 4
Service:	Adult Social Care and Homelessness Service
Service Area:	Denbighshire Locality
Responsible to:	Reablement Co-ordinator
Job ID Number / Date Issued:	01594 / January 2010

Job Purpose

The aim of the Reablement Support Worker role is to support individuals in their own homes or other community settings to maximize their independence and improve health and well-being in a coordinated way. They will implement support plans which will be outcome focused and aimed at promoting independence by helping individuals to do things for themselves and to maximise their ability to live life as independently as possible by addressing their physical, social and emotional needs. This may include components of personal care. They will be working to clear guidelines and protocols with indirect supervision for all or most of the shift.

The post holder will be a member of the Localities Service which covers the whole of Denbighshire however post holders will usually work within a designated geographical patch. The days and hours of work will be flexible (within contracted hours).

Principal Accountabilities and Responsibilities

To implement a short term goal orientated programme of reablement as identified within an agreed support plan, involving carers and relatives as appropriate.

To encourage independence and confidence in individuals through motivating, assisting and supervising them to carry out personal care and life skills. This may include assisting people to access community facilities and engage in hobbies or supporting registered professionals to implement therapeutic handling interventions or care tasks.

Ensure safe use of all community equipment by self and individuals following appropriate training and the completion of a risk assessment by senior member of the team.

To complete daily records and input relevant information onto computer systems for individual service users and maintain confidentiality in accordance with Social Services' policy.

To verbally report to seniors and registered professionals regularly on individuals' progress and their response to activities, identifying issues as appropriate. This will include contributing to the formal reviews.

To provide information and advice about community facilities and external agencies to promote choice and well-being to meet the agreed outcomes for the service user.

To take appropriate action to safeguard and protect vulnerable adults including recognizing, reporting and responding appropriately to any emergency or urgent situation.

To end intervention in line with good practice and demonstrate activities to any ongoing domiciliary care provider.

Additional Responsibilities

Work with sensitivity, dignity and respect and provide a high standard of care at all times, in line with organizational requirements.

To participate in team meetings to promote effective communication with all team members.

Undertake mandatory training and development in accordance with the Organizational Policy to update skills and maintain a portfolio of personal development. All activities undertaken must be limited to those which the post holder has been assessed as competent to undertake.

Engage in supervision and seek support if at any time they have doubts about their competence immediately.

Supervision/Management of People

The Reablement Support Worker is not responsible for the management of any staff although may be expected to support new team members and students in their role.

Knowledge, Skills, Training and Experience

A motivated team player who has a flexible approach to duties and working hours and is able to work with minimal support.

Excellent interpersonal skills and the ability to communicate effectively with a range of people.

NVQ Level 2 in Health & Social Care or equivalent qualification or experience

Experience in social care settings and within the community.

Experience of providing practical support with activities of daily living.

Proven ability to observe and produce good recording.

Ability to carry out delegated duties i.e. accept instruction, report back to supervisor/appropriate professional, work within guidelines and respond appropriately to feedback.

Ability to act calmly in emergencies and respond in a professional manner to stressful and challenging situations.

Good understanding of the importance of promoting independence and the concept of reablement and intermediate care.

An understanding of and respect for confidentiality in relation to all aspects of work.

The post holder will believe in the importance of valued lifestyles for older and disabled people and have regard to the uniqueness of each individual.

Ability to promote the concept of reablement and promote independence and social inclusion.

Knowledge and understanding of equality and diversity issues.

Creativity and innovation

The post will involve creativity and innovation to provide solutions to non-complex problems and report back.

The post holder will be creative in establishing contacts within the wider community to mitigate social isolation and improve well-being.

Special Working Conditions

Working in individuals own homes, so must have an awareness of those risks. Must be able to safely handle animate and inanimate objects.

The post holder will work in a variety of locations; office based / public access buildings and clients' own homes - all of which will have varying conditions. The Department is moving towards agile working for all community based staff.

When working alone (providing face to face services at various locations around Denbighshire or in clients' own homes) the post holder must be aware of the need to work within the parameters of the Lone Working policy and to be aware of their own health and safety.

Employment Checks/ Specific Requirements

All new starters are required to undergo our standard safer recruitment checks;

DBS clearance, 2 satisfactory references covering 3 years' employment, evidence of essential qualifications, evidence of Right to Work in the UK, evidence of registration with Social Care Wales.

Denbighshire County Council recognises its obligations to safeguard children and adults together with preventing slavery and human trafficking and will do all in its power to prevent slavery and human trafficking within its business. Modern slavery can take many forms including the trafficking of people, forced labour, servitude and slavery.

Safeguarding is everyone's business and all Denbighshire employees are required to work in accordance with the Council's Child / Adult Safeguarding policies and procedures and have a duty to report any concerns which may be noted during the course of their duties and are asked to be alert to the signs of exploitation. Concerns should be raised via their Designated Safeguarding Manager in order that the Council can take prompt action when exploitation is identified.

Full driving licence.

Vision/Context

The post will form part of a multi-disciplinary team that will deliver services across the county of Denbighshire and involve close working with colleagues. Innovative practice will be encouraged to meet the demands of a modernised social services function, within a challenging financial context.

The post holder will work to the advice and guidance of Registered Professional along with a range of multi-disciplinary colleagues in a holistic manner to facilitate and maximise potential.

DENBIGHSHIRE COUNTY COUNCIL PERSON SPECIFICATION

The Person Specification sets out the skills, knowledge and experience that are considered to be necessary to carry out the duties of the post effectively. It will be used in the short-listing and interview process for this post. You should demonstrate on your application form how you meet these criteria as you will only be shortlisted if you meet all of the essential criteria (and desirable criteria where applicable).
