

Social Care Recruitment Workshop

Are you considering a career in social care or looking for a new opportunity?

Choose a career with Denbighshire County Council.

Come along to our Social Care Recruitment Workshop to find out more information about working in Social Care with Denbighshire County Council.

Date: Thursday 8th May

Time: 10:00 a.m.

Location: County Hall, Wynnstay Road, Ruthin, LL15 1YN

Working in social care is not just a job, it is one of the most rewarding career choices you can make. We are looking for candidates with a naturally caring attitude, and who want to make a difference to the lives of others. You should be organised, a great communicator, and enjoy working as part of a close team.

The Workshop will provide information about the social care teams, the job vacancies available and how to apply. Should you wish to complete an application form on the day, guidance and support will be available. You will be offered an interview on the day.

As a council employee, you will be entitled to a range of benefits such as generous annual leave, a competitive pension scheme, lifestyle savings via the rewards scheme which includes shopping, entertainment, holidays and days out as well as access to an Employee Assistance Programme.

If you have a genuine desire to help others and would like a rewarding career with Denbighshire County Council, book a place at the Workshop today.
